Term Three

January to March 2023

Primary 4K

Mrs Fearnley

Welcome back to Term 3. I hope that you all enjoyed the festivities and were able to enjoy some family time. It is great to see so many pupils returning fresh and ready for learning. Raising Attainment and Wellbeing remain our top priorities and we will target learning in fun, interactive and motivational ways. As the weather remains cold and unpredictable, please ensure that pupils are dressed appropriately for going outdoors.

Literacy and Language

This term we will be:

- focusing on recount, narrative and persuasive writing during our writing lessons.
- exploring writing in past tense and continuing to learn different spelling patterns.
- continuing to develop dictionary skills and our comprehension skills by exploring a variety of fiction and non-fiction texts.

Number Processes and Beyond Number

This term we will be:

- consolidating our knowledge of multiplication table facts and will begin to multiply numbers by a single digit.
- exploring time, focusing on telling the time and learning about 24-hour clock format.
- exploring maths and its impact on the world, looking at how we use maths everyday.

Other Curricular News

This term we will be:

- developing our badminton and volleyball skills.
- learning about Scottish history, exploring important Scottish figures and their influence on Scottish society, Scottish castles and local Scottish history.
- learning about medicines and how our choices can affect our bodies. We will also discuss how to react to unsafe situations and emergencies.

We continue on our journey to become a Rights Respecting School, with a fresh focus on specific UNCRC Articles (Rights) across the school each month.

Right of the Month:

January 2023

Article 12: Every child has the right to express their views, feelings and wishes in all matters affecting them, and to have their views considered and taken seriously. This right applies at all times, for example during immigration proceedings, housing decisions or the child's day-to-day home life.

February 2023

Article 30 – Children have the right to use their own language, culture and religion.

March 2023

Article 17 – Children have the right to get information from the internet, radio, television, newspapers, books and other sources. Adults must make sure this information is not harmful.
